Your Health Information and Our Privacy Policy

The policy of our practice is to follow these procedures:

The information collected will be used for the purpose of providing treatment to you. Personal information will be used to address accounts to you, process payments and write to you about our services and any issues affecting your treatment.

We may disclose your health information to other health care professionals, or require it from them if it is necessary in the context of your treatment. In that event, disclosure of your personal details will be minimised wherever possible.

We may also use parts of your health information for research purposes, in study groups or at seminars as this may provide benefit to other patients. Should that happen, your personal identity will not be disclosed without your consent to do so.

Your medical history, treatment records, x-rays and any other material relevant to your treatment will be kept here. You may inspect or request copies of our records of your treatment at any time. Fees may apply.

If any information we have about you is inaccurate, you may ask us to alter our records accordingly.

Your health information will be treated with the utmost confidentiality. Disclosure will not be made to any person not involved in either your treatment or the administration of this practice, without your prior written consent. If you have any queries or concerns about our handling of your health information, please do not hesitate to raise these concerns with our practice.

A full copy of our privacy statement is available upon request.
